

That's me!

You have discovered a website where young people can look for online pen friends. Perfect! You have always wanted an English-speaking pen friend! Before you can look at the different profile pages others have posted, you must first upload your own profile page.

1. But wait...! Is it OK to put personal information on the Internet? Look at the following ideas.

Which ideas are OK to put on the Internet? Make a green circle around them.

Which ideas are not OK to put on the Internet? Make a red circle around them.

If you are not sure, make a blue circle around them.

Is it ok to post / talk about ...?

your complete name

only your first name

your address

your phone number

your favourite sport / hobby

a photo of your pet

your birthday

a photo of your family

how old you are

a funny photo from the Internet

how many brothers and sisters you have your favourite school subject

the name of your city/town

a silly photo of yourself

your parents' names

your favourite food

2. Say why you think it is OK / not OK. Here are some ideas:

... because strangers could find my home / call me on my phone.

... because the Internet never forgets.

... because it is not personal data....
