II Reading Comprehension

Read the following text by Emma Smith about important people in her life. Then complete the following sentences.

Emma's blog

I come from Cardiff, Wales. I was born in London on March 5th, 2008. We moved to Wales when I was five. My grandparents live here in a beautiful house with a big garden and two cats. In 2013 my grandfather had an accident and he needed help. That's why my parents decided to move to Cardiff. They found interesting jobs there. Now my mother sells flowers in a big shopping centre and my father teaches mathematics and PE at a primary school.

My grandparents live next door. That's cool. When I was little, they looked after me because mum and dad were always very busy. My grandparents played with me, showed me lots of exciting places and told me stories about their childhood. It was like listening to fairy tales. Life was totally different when they were children. There were no mobile phones or computers. They listened to the radio and only had a few programmes on TV. When my grandmother was a child, they didn't have a microwave at home. Today she uses it almost every day to warm delicious meals for me after school.

Well, granny is really modern. She drives a car, eats healthy food, for example, fresh vegetables or salads and she even makes bread. She does sport and goes to the gym with me. Don't laugh. Of course, we don't take the same courses. Grandma is in a special class for seniors and I do jazz dance. Grandpa is crazy about cars. He drives a Ford Focus and likes travelling around Britain. He can't live without his computer and mobile phone – just like me.

My grandparents are very important people in my life.

1. Emma's grandparents have a lovely house in _____
2. Her family moved to Wales because _____

3. Emma's mother works as a _____
4. Her father is a _____
5. When Emma's grandparents were young, they did not have (Name two.) _____

6. Her grandfather's hobbies are (Name two.) _____
